REPORT MADE AT BOSTON	DATE WHEN MADE 5/2/47	PERIOD FOR WHICH MADE 12/28/46; 1/3; 3/12, 31; 4/4, 24/47	REPORT MADE BY JOHN B. DAVIDSON ech
TITLE CHANGED: ROBERT BLOCK HEINEMAN, wa Robert Hill			CHARACTER OF CASE SECURITY MATTER - C

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: Subject was trying to obtain teaching position in fall of 1946. When this failed, he went to Mexico where he is supposed to be working for a degree. However, when he wrote home recently he gave the address of the U. S. Embassy, Mexico. Just before leaving the United States, subject joined the Communist Party under the name of ROBERT HILL.

REFERENCE: Report of Special Agent JOHN B. DAVIDSON dated 12/27/46 at Boston.

DETAILS: The title of this case is being changed to reflect the alias of subject as ROBERT HILL, which is the name he assumed when he became a member of the Communist Party.

Miss FLORENCE K. LEETCH, Secretary, Harvard University Appointment Office, 24 Quincy Street, Cambridge, advised that the subject had visited that office in the fall of 1946 seeking a teaching position and requested that a transcript of his record be sent to the following agencies:

American College Bureau, 28 East Jackson Boulevard, Chicago

Teacher's Registry and Exchange, 32 West Randolph Street, Chicago

Albert Teachers' Agency, 25 East Jackson Boulevard, Chicago

The Chicago Office by letter dated April 21, 1947, advised that a check was made at all three of these agencies, and that up to that time, the subject had not been placed in a teaching position. However, it was determined that he had been registered with all three agencies, and it was believed that he might be placed in the fall of 1947 at one of the Eastern schools. According to information obtained from these agencies, subject formerly taught at Boston University in 1945 and was employed at the General Electric Plant, Lynn, Mass., in 1945 as a foreman. None of these agencies had corresponded with the subject since March, 1947.

Professor ELIOT PERKINS, Master of Lowell House, Harvard University, stated that he recalled the subject as a student in one of his classes about 1940. His recollection was that the subject "had more industry than judgement." Professor PERKINS stated that he did not know him well enough to form an opinion as to his loyalties.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that the subject's wife, Mrs. HEINEMAN, told her that she lived in Germany when Hitler first came to power and that her father and brother had spent some time in German concentration camps; that her brother later went to England and became a British subject. Her brother was a very brilliant scientist and, according to Mrs. HEINEMAN, EINSTEIN had sent for him to help work on the atomic bomb, and recently he had returned to England. Informant T-1 further stated that subject's wife told her that the subject had been taking courses all summer at Harvard University and was an instructor in history but had been sent to Mexico City by Harvard College and had been there for the past two months.

The writer made several inquiries at Harvard University, including the Department of History, but it was ascertained that the subject was not on the staff as an Assistant Professor, nor was he listed as one of those who was given a Research Fellowship to leave the country.

The subject's wife was contacted telephonically by the use of a suitable [redacted] and she advised that her husband was in Mexico writing a book; that he had gone to that country on his own and was working toward a degree. b7E

Confidential Informant T-2 advised on April 24 that Mrs. ROBERT HEINEMAN, subject's wife, received a letter which bore a return address of "R. HEINEMAN, U. S. Embassy, Mexico, D. F., Mexico."

Confidential Informant ND BOS MS-100, whose identity is known to the Bureau, on January 23, 1947, advised that an unidentified individual called at Communist Party Headquarters and told ANNE GARFIELD, a clerical employee, that he wanted to join the Communist Party. He stated he had been a member until 1937. He stated he did not want to use or give his real name for reference on the Party records, and after attempting to dissuade him from using an alias, ANNE GARFIELD told him it would be best for him to use his own first name. The latter step would prevent exposure of an alias in the event someone who knew him called him by his first name. He finally told her to use the name of ROBERT HILL on his membership card and gave his address ^{and} his telephone number as 94 Lakewood Avenue, Cambridge, Trowbridge 0270. This telephone is listed to ROBERT HEINEMAN at that address. Subject paid a 50¢ initiation fee at the time he received his book.

Her husband Robert Block Heineman was born March 25, 1917, at Wausau, Wisconsin. His father was Gabriel Bernard Heineman and his mother, Alma Block. He graduated from the University of Chicago High School in 1934 and received an AB degree on July 6, 1938, from Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania. From the fall of 1938 to March 9, 1944, he attended the Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Science, 24 Quincy Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts. He received an AM degree in February, 1941, at Harvard. He withdrew from Harvard to enter war plant work. U

Our records reflect that in January, 1947, he joined the Communist Party under the name of Robert Hill. At that time he advised the Party that he had been a member until 1937. Our records also reflect that he was a member of the Cambridge Branch of the Communist Political Association in 1944. U

In February, 1942, Kristel Heineman listed the following relatives outside of the United States. Dr. Emil Fuchs, Berlin, Germany - Father; Gerhard Fuchs, held at a sanatorium, Jurich, Switzerland - brother; Dr. Klaus Fuchs, serving in the English Army - brother. U

Kristel Heineman is reported to have stated that she lived in Germany when Hitler first came to power and that her father and brother had spent some time in German concentration camps. She said that her brother later went to England and became a British subject. She described this brother as a very brilliant scientist and said that Einstein had sent for him to help work on the Atomic Bomb, and that recently he had returned to England. This was as of the early part of 1947. U

It appears that the Heinemans resided at 144 Lakeview Ave., Cambridge, Massachusetts, from 1941 until 1944 and possibly until 1945. However, it is known that in 1944, Robert Heineman had the address of 302 South Plymouth Street, Chicago, Illinois, which may be the address of his parents. U

It appears that in January, 1944, the General Electric Company, River Works Plant, Lynn, Massachusetts, filed an occupational certificate on behalf of Robert Heineman with his selective service draft board. This was during the period he was in attendance at Harvard. On July 18, 1944, Heineman advised his draft board that he had applied for overseas ambulance duty with the American Field Service, 8 Newberry Street, Boston Massachusetts. U

From August, 1945, until about June 6, 1946, he was employed as a teacher at the Andrim Public High School, Andrim, New Hampshire. After the school term he returned to Cambridge, Massachusetts, where his address was changed from 144 to 94 Lakeview Avenue. This is his last known address. U

We have no record of travel on the part of the Heinemans during 1944 except as might be inferred from the Chicago address mentioned above and the application for overseas ambulance duty. U

Our records also show that Heinenman made a trip to Mexico and registered at the United States Embassy on February 15, 1947. He remained until May 20, 1947, and attended classes at the University of Mexico. On May 20, 1947, he left for Chapala, Jalisco on a vacation and left Chapala enroute to the United States on or about August 27, 1947. (100-346228)

It has been determined that a captured German document which appears to be a list of persons compiled in 1941 for the use of the German Army in the invasion of Russia lists the following:

"Klaus Fuchs, student of philosophy, December 29, 1911, Russelsheim, RSHA-IVA2, Gestapo Field Office Kiel.

"Gerhard Fuchs, October 30, 1909, Russelsheim, student, RSHA-IVA2, Gestapo Field Office Kiel.

"Dr. Fuchs, Jew, Director of the sick fund in Ozernowitz, Russian N-Agent, Dukowina, RSHA-IVE5, Gestapo Field Office Breslau."

The translator of this document submitted an analysis of the file numbers. RSHA stands for Reichssicherheitshauptamt, which is the central office of the Security Police. The roman numerals IV refer to the department of the RSHA. The file IVAL and IVA2, usually assigned to German Communists. The majority, former German Communist Deputies and German Communist Writers, had the file number IVA2.

Our records reflect that Emil Julius Klaus Fuchs arrived in this country on December 3, 1943, aboard the British Navy Transport H.M.T. Andes. Aboard this same ship were Rudolph Ernst Peierls and his wife, Eugenia Peterls. Mrs. Peierls was born July 25, 1908, at Leningrad, Russia. She is a British citizen having been naturalized March 26, 1940, at London England.

According to the Atomic Energy Commission, Book II, Gaseous Diffusion (K-25) Project, Volume III, Designed, Section 15, of the Manhattan District History reflected that Dr. Fuchs was one of a group of British scientists who developed diffusional separation processes. This report stated that during the period from March to June 1944 (which period is pertinent to this case) certain members of the British group Messrs. C. F. Kearton, R. Peierls, K. Fuchs and R. Skyrme were stationed in New York, and on request from Kellogg and with the approval of the War Department undertook an analysis of certain theoretical studies which were summarized in a series of reports, and MSN series, which were helpful in anticipating problems of plant design.

It has been reported that in November, 1947, Dr. K. Fuchs and Dr. W.H.B. Skinner were cleared to visit the Chicago Operations Office of the AEC for a discussion of unclassified and declassified aspects of neutron spectroscopy.

Fuchs had participated in declassification conferences among the United States,
Great Britain and Canada. U

Reference is made to our memorandum dated September 22, 1947.

It has been determined that Robert Heineman was employed by the General Electric Company, River Works, Lynn, Massachusetts, from approximately March 1943 through 1944 at least, and possibly as late as July 1945. This of course, covers the pertinent period.

In October 1941, Heineman claimed that his legal address was 320 (not 302) South Plymouth Court, Chicago, Illinois, and stated that he was temporarily residing at 144 Lake View Avenue, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

On September 13, 1943, he is known to have furnished a change of address to Kewayden Lodge, Box 39, Route 1, Woodruff, Wisconsin, until September 18, after which his address would be 320 South Plymouth Court, Chicago, Illinois.

On December 13, 1943, he reported that his address would be 325 Riviera Avenue, Golden Beach, Hollywood, Florida, and on December 10, 1944, he stated that he had been residing at 144 Lake View Avenue, Cambridge, Massachusetts, for approximately the last year and a half.

302 South Plymouth Court, Chicago, Illinois, is the address of the Standard Club of which Gabriel Bernard Heineman, father of Robert Bloch Heineman, has been a nonresident member since 1929. Gabriel Heineman never maintained a permanent residence at the Standard Club. In June, July and August 1944, Gabriel Heineman wrote to the Club for reservations from the Kewayden Lodge, Woodruff, Wisconsin. No mention was made of any reservations for Robert Bloch Heineman or his wife, Kristel Heineman. The best available information is that Robert and Kristel never maintained rooms at the Club.

With reference to Robert Heineman's change of address in December 1943, to 325 Riviera Avenue, Golden Beach, Hollywood, Florida, it should be noted while he was in Mexico in 1947, he received a letter in care of

At page seven of referenced report it is reflected that Kristel Heineman was supposed to be receiving an income from her parents, according to a report of the Credit Bureau of Greater Boston, dated September 18, 1941. The Boston Office is requested to locate the bank account of Kristel Heineman and to review the same to determine whether she received any money from her father or possibly from her mother's estate. All details concerning such transactions should be obtained.

The Philadelphia Office is also requested to attempt to locate a bank account for Kristel Heineman at Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, where she attended Swarthmore College from 1936 to 1938. It is noted that according to information appearing on page eight of referenced report, Mrs. Frances Elanshard, Dean of Swarthmore College, paid part of Kristel Heineman's expenses in May 1938, when she reentered the United States from Havana, Cuba.

The Boston Office should determine at the General Electric Plant, Lynn, Massachusetts, whether Robert Heineman had a vacation during the year 1944, and if so when he took it, and where he might have traveled.

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent R. Dudley Payne, at Washington, D.C., dated November 29, 1949, setting forth that the records of the State Department do not reflect the issuance of passports to either Robert or Kristel Heineman, and advising that the Immigration & Naturalization Service records contain no information concerning Kristel Heineman not contained in the report of Special Agent Charles E. Pelletier, at Boston, dated October 27, 1949. It is to be noted that the latter report reflects that Kristel Heineman has not been naturalized as a citizen of the United States, and further, that her Alien Enemy Registration folder contains no applications for permits to travel.

The Washington Field Office is requested to advise whether or not the records of the Immigration & Naturalization Service were checked for re-entry permits that might have been issued to Kristel Heineman.

It will be noted from the report of Special Agent Pelletier that Robert Bloch Heineman, according to the changes of address furnished to his local Draft Board, had visited Kewayden Lodge, Woodruff, Wisconsin; 320 South Plymouth Court, Chicago, Illinois; and Golden Beach, Hollywood, Florida, during 1943. As it would seem likely that Mrs. Heineman may have traveled with her husband, the Washington Office is requested to examine her Alien Enemy Registration file at the Immigration & Naturalization Service.

Alumni records at the college reflected only 3" x 5" index cards for both the subject and her husband. These cards merely reflected the date of leaving Swarthmore College and current address. RE: KRISTEL HEINEMAN
ROBERT BLOCK HEINEMAN

While inquiry has failed to reflect the issuance of a passport to Robert Block Heineman, it has been determined that he attended Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, from September 24, 1935, to June 6, 1938, during which time his father was shown as G. B. Heineman, 5552 Everett Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. There would appear to be little doubt that the Robert Heineman mentioned in your memorandum of September 15, 1949, is identical with Robert Block Heineman, and further efforts to determine whether a passport was issued to him are being made. U

Kristel Fuchs Heineman attended Swarthmore College beginning September 22, 1936, until her withdrawal during her fourth year course in 1937-1938. Her first year of college was at the University of Zurich, Switzerland. At the time of enrollment she stated she was born July 22, 1913, in Maine, Germany. She indicated her parent as D. Emil Fuchs, Berlin N. 65 Afrikanischer 140 b. U good character, had an income of $8,000.00 per year and resides at 320 Plymouth Court, "which is an exclusive Jewish Club." The Chicago report listed G. B. HEINEMANN as former President of Heinemann Lumber Company, Wasau, Wisconsin, added that he was worth $100,000. in 1932 and has a $30,000. home at Trout Lake, (state not indicated).

Current Miami telephone directory lists G. B. HEINEMANN residing at 325 Riviera Avenue, Center Island, Golden Beach, telephone 5156. Current City Directory does not list subject or any of above mentioned HEINEMANN family, nor do records of Miami Police Department, Sheriff's Office or Miami Beach Police Department, nor do records of Dade County Supervisor of Voting Registration.

Immigration and Naturalization Service Office contained no additional information on subject other than what is stated in referenced report. [REDACTED] whose identity is known to the Bureau, does not know the subject or the HEINEMANN family, nor has he ever heard of any Communist Party activity on their part. Files of this Office contain no information that could be identified with them. b7d

G. E. JONES, Manager of Sinclair Service Station, Sunny Isles Causeway, stated that he was Chief of Police in Golden Beach from 1941 to 1947. He stated that G. B. HEINEMANN built his home on Riviera Drive about 1940 and has been a winter visitor there since. JONES believes that HEINEMANN has a wife and a son and daughter, and that they have two grandchildren. He understood from G. B. HEINEMANN that in 1944 or 1945 HEINEMANN had a son or son-in-law in the U. S. Navy as an Officer. JONES advised that the HEINEMANNs appear to be quite well off financially, spend the summers in Wisconsin and frequently stayed at some club in Chicago. JONES knew only G. B.; stated that he had never met his wife, children or grandchildren and that the family were not too active socially in the Golden Beach area but he knew no unfavorable information regarding their character or loyalty. So far as he knew, the children and grandchildren of HEINEMANN's do not visit Golden Beach very often.

AT FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA

Files of Broward County Credit Bureau listed G. B. HEINEMANN, retired from business in Chicago in 1936, purchasing two lots in Hollywood Lake Section on May 9, 1940 and May 16, 1940, and contained no further information. Current City Directory for Hollywood, Florida suburbs did not list the HEINEMANN family.

MM 65-2345

In view of the suggestion of the Boston Office that this investigation be discreet, no one in addition to JONES was contacted. It is to be noted that G. B. HEINEMANN consistently spells his name ending in two n's while reference report spells it HEINEMAN.

Credit and criminal record check at Miami was conducted by Special Agent WILLIAM J. LALLY; criminal check at Miami Beach was conducted by Special Employee J. ELMER MACKEY.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM : GUY HOTTEL, SAC, WASHINGTON FIELD

SUBJECT: KRISTEL FUCH HEINEMAN, was.
ROBERT B. HEINEMAN, wa.
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: March 31, 1950

Re Boston teletype to the Bureau February 9, 1950, requesting the Washington Field Office, as well as other offices, to search their indices on the following individuals:

NANCY KARDOZA, MARY IVANS and TED BELTFORT

The Washington Field Office indices are negative pertaining to NANCY KARDOZA and MARY IVANS. Washington Field Office has no information in its files pertaining to TED BELTFORT which the Boston Office does not now possess.

Further reference is made to the report of Special Agent BRENTON S. GORDON, dated February 9, 1950, at Boston, in the above captioned case, wherein a lead was set out for the Washington Field Office to check the Visa Records of the State Department to determine the dates of EMIL JULIUS KLAUS FUCHS' visit to the United States in 1947 and his itinerary.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service reflected that FUCHS arrived at New York November 11, 1947, and departed this country on November 30, 1947.

The State Department files had no additional information concerning FUCHS' travel in this country in 1947.

This information was previously furnished the Bureau and New York Office by report of Special Agent H. DUDLEY PAYNE, dated November 15, 1949, at Washington, D. C., under the caption of EMIL JULIUS KLAUS FUCHS. Boston did not receive a copy of this report. RUC

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

FROM : SAC, Boston

SUBJECT: KRISTEL FUCHS HEINEMAN with aliases
ROBERT BLOCH HEINEMAN with aliases
ESPIONAGE (R)

DATE: 9-28-50

ReBulet September 11, 1950 and Form #64 forwarded Boston 9/18/50.

It is not recommended that a Security Index card be maintained with reference to KRISTEL HEINEMAN because she is currently confined to the Westboro State Hospital for the Mentally Ill at Westboro, Massachusetts, and will be so confined indefinitely.

A review of the reports submitted by Special Agent BRENTON S. GORDON in this case, in the HARRY GOLD case and the KLAUS FUCHS case, indicate that Dr. ROLLIS HADLEY, director of the above hospital, has been extremely cooperative. He has assured Special Agent Gordon that should there be any change in Mrs. HEINEMAN's condition which would warrant her leaving the hospital under any circumstances whatsoever, he would advise the agent before permitting such to occur.

ROBERT HEINEMAN was, as a review of the above reports will indicate, extremely cooperative throughout the GOLD and FUCHS investigations. He provided the Bureau with its first leads which led to the identification of GOLD.

He has renounced his former association with the Communist Party. In view of his having identified Party members with whom he was affiliated and in view of his reluctant willingness to testify against those persons in a court of law, it is not believed that a Security Index card would be justified at this time.

The agent to whom the instant case is assigned is deeply involved in a number of other cases which would appear, under current Bureau directives, to require priority attention. Accordingly, it is anticipated that a closing report in this case will be submitted approximately October 25, next.

DATE: November 9, 1950

Reference is made to Bureau Form O-1, submitted to the Boston Division on November 2, last, in instant case.

The HEINEMAN cases and the case involving KLAUS FUCHS are assigned in the Boston Division to Special Agent BRENTON S. GORDON. Agent GORDON is also handling the ROSENBERG group cases in Boston and the ROTHEMAN group cases in Boston. The latter two assignments appear, from information currently in the Boston files, to be more pressing than the captioned. As soon as they are handled, Special Agent GORDON has been instructed to submit a closing report in the instant and related cases.

Present personnel indications at this point do not permit reassignment of any of the foregoing.

It is anticipated that a closing report will be submitted within twenty days.

Re: 12/2/50, Special Agent Brenton S. Gordon, at Boston.
It is noted that this report carries the status of this investigation as "RUC" though Boston is the office of origin. The correct status, of course, should be "Closed."

Attention is further invited to the fact that seven copies of this report, which is administrative, were designated for the Bureau.
Bureau Bulletin No. 62, dated November 9, 1950, instructs that only two copies of administrative reports should be designated for the Bureau.

Page 4 lists as a report of reference the report of Special Agent W. Rulon Pasman, dated April 7, 1950, at Chicago, Illinois.
The Bureau has no record of such a report which apparently should be the report of Special Agent Pasman dated March 7, 1950.

PURPOSE

To obtain authority to close this case.

DETAILS

Kristel and Robert Heineman are the sister and brother-in-law of Klaus Fuchs, British atom scientist convicted on charges of espionage in behalf of the USSR. Investigation of subjects prior to the Fuchs case developed evidence of Communist Party membership on the part of Robert Heineman.

In connection with the Fuchs case, both of the Heinemans were interviewed. Mrs. Heineman was then in the Westboro State Hospital for the mentally ill, where she had been earlier confined as a mental patient. The attached closing report reflects that Kristel Heineman is still in this institution, with no apparent hope of recovery.

Robert Heineman, though reluctant to cooperate when first interviewed, subsequently admitted his Communist Party affiliation and activity and thereafter did cooperate to some extent with the Bureau. He furnished information concerning the scientist, (later identified as Harry Gold) who visited the Heineman residence in 1945 looking for Fuchs. The attached closing report reflects that recent contacts with confidential informants in Boston failed to disclose any further information indicating Communist activity on the part of Robert Heineman.

A review of Bureau files, according to attached search slips, has been made without locating any additional information identifiable with either of the Heinemans which would warrant continuance of an espionage investigation. This review reflects that, during 1950, Robert Heineman has been carried as a temporary informant in several reports emanating from the Boston office.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that this case be closed.

Former Special Agent and now Attorney JAMES F. MAHAN advised Special Agent BRENTON S. GORDON, of this division, on May 29, 1951, of the following.

In late April 1951, MR. MAHAN filed a petition for a divorce proceeding in the Middlesex South District Probate Court at Cambridge, Massachusetts, on behalf of ROBERT HEINEMAN. The grounds for the divorce are adultery and the correspondent named is KONSTANTIN LAFANOS, of Lowell, Massachusetts. MR. MAHAN stated that the necessary affidavits from two reliable witnesses, whom he did not identify, have been obtained.

MR. MAHAN stated that he was bringing this information to the Bureau's attention because it was possible that some publicity might result when the proceedings are carried before a probate judge. The court has been requested to appoint a guardian to act for MRS. HEINEMAN, who remains an inmate at the Westboro State Hospital for the Mentally Ill.

MR. MAHAN stated that both he and his client were anxious to avoid publicity; that thus far, no newspaperman had noticed the filing of the papers, and it was possible that the proceedings might be conducted without any publicity. MAHAN further stated, however, that if, "in self-defense", it is necessary for him to issue some statement, he intends to follow the outline of the story of the FUCHS case as presented by the Director in the article appearing in the May 1951 issue of Readers Digest, and entitled "The Crime of the Century".

The foregoing information is provided the Bureau for informative purposes. The Boston Division has evinced no interest in the civil actions involving the HEINEMAN family.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : DIRECTOR, F.B.I.

DATE: JUNE 1, 1951

FROM : SAC, BOSTON

SUBJECT: ROBERT HEINEMAN; KRISTEL FUCHS HEINEMAN
ESPIONAGE - R

On the afternoon of May 31, 1951 KONSTANTIN LAFAZANOS, Willie Street, Lowell, Massachusetts personally appeared at the office of this Division and advised SA RICHARD W. DOW of the following:

LAFAZANOS declared that he has been subpoenaed as a witness in the divorce action now being instituted by ROBERT HEINEMAN against his wife. LAFAZANOS stated that he had contacted the Clerk of Court and learned that he would be a witness at a trial to occur sometime in the next 30 days. LAFAZANOS said he intended "to prove" these three items:

- (1) That ROBERT HEINEMAN was a member of the Communist Party.
- (2) That ROBERT HEINEMAN was a [REDACTED]
- (3) That he, LAFAZANOS, was the [REDACTED]

LAFAZANOS then commented that the interviewing Agent might well note that he had lost considerable weight since the last time the Agents had interviewed him in connection with the FUCHS and GOLD case. Here again LAFAZANOS stated, "My loss in weight is the result of the psychological warfare being waged upon me by SA GORDON and SA DOW."

It will be noted that LAFAZANOS' [REDACTED] is a matter of record with the Selective Service officials and has been described earlier in reports concerned with the Foccases.

The foregoing information is furnished the Bureau for informative purposes. It is noted that the attorney representing HEINEMAN has previously advised that he intends to avoid publicity in connection with his client's domestic problems. It can be noted however, that LAFAZANOS will undoubtedly attract newspaper attention if he makes the allegations he declares above.

Obviously, no comments were made to LAFAZANOS which would, in any way, reflect a Bureau interest in this purely civil matter.

A review of the records of this Bureau reflects that Kristel Heineman and her husband, Robert Bloch Heineman, are the sister and brother-in-law of Klaus Fuchs, British Atom Scientist convicted on charges of espionage in behalf of the USSR. An investigation conducted on Kristel and Robert Heineman prior to the Fuchs case developed evidence of Communist Party membership on the part of Robert Heineman.

Kristel Heineman, when interviewed by this Bureau in connection with Klaus Fuchs investigation, was cooperative.

The most recent address for Kristel Heineman, as contained in the files of this Bureau, is that of the Westboro Massachusetts State Hospital for the Mentally Ill where she was confined as a mental patient. Regarding her mental condition, it was reported in 1951 that there was no apparent hope of recovery.

This is the result of your request for an FBI file check only and is not to be considered as a clearance or a nonclearance of the individual involved. It is for your confidential use only and is not to be disseminated outside of your agency.

BS 100-19075

DETAILS:

b7C [redacted] interviewed on June 17, 1954 at [redacted] b7C
[redacted] by SA [redacted] and SA [redacted]
[redacted] advised that she was a member of the Communist Party of Cambridge, Massachusetts from [redacted] b7C [redacted] at which time she dropped out because she became disillusioned with the Communist Party and all it stood for.
She recalled that ROBERT HEINEMAN and CRYSTAL HEINEMAN were members of the group in Cambridge, Massachusetts but said she had no contact with them since [redacted] b7C

In connection with a request by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Boston, Massachusetts, as to the availability of [redacted] as a witness in the subject's United States citizenship proceedings, [redacted] b7C
[redacted] was interviewed on May 12, 1955 by agents of the FBI at [redacted] at which time she said she did not desire to testify, that she had no clear memory that the subject attended any Communist Party cell meetings. She said her general impression was that the subject probably belonged to the Communist Party but said she had no definite information in this regard.

On April 29, 1964 Mrs. SYLVIA CARR, 4 Plympton Street, Woburn, Massachusetts, wife of a Methodist minister, advised that the subject, about ten years ago, married ALBERT HOLZER, an uncle of Mrs. CARR, and that they were now living in Putney, Vermont having moved there from Hyde Park, Massachusetts where ALBERT HOLZER had a business. Mrs. CARR said that KRISTEL HOLZER had gone to East Germany many times and that she was a sister of KLAUS FUCHS. She said she was reporting this matter because she understood KRISTEL HOLZER still wanted to make another trip to East Germany but believed that her husband, ALBERT HOLZER, had refused to let her go.

On October 2, 1964 Mrs. CARR furnished the following additional information regarding the subject:

The subject, a sister of KLAUS FUCHS, was divorced by ROBERT B. HEINEMAN in 1951 when she was a mental patient at the Westboro State Hospital, Westboro, Massachusetts. As part of an occupational therapy program she went to work following her discharge from Westboro for the U. Holzer Company, 29 Collins Street, Hyde Park, Massachusetts, a well-known Boston bookbinding firm. While working there, she met ALBERT HOLZER, a member of this firm, who is an uncle to Mrs. SYLVIA CARR, and in 1954 the subject and ALBERT HOLZER were married. This was the first marriage for HOLZER, who was 71 years of age. Two children were born of this marriage, both girls, namely MARIANNA, now about nine, and HEIDI, now about seven.

The subject and HOLZER resided at 35 Collins Street, Hyde Park, Massachusetts, for about nine years until they moved to Putney, Vermont in 1963 when the Holzer bookbinding business was sold. The reason for their moving to Putney, Vermont was never clear to Mrs. CARR but they once stated there were better schools for the children there.

Mrs. CARR advised that in 1961 and 1963 the subject and ALBERT HOLZER made trips to East Germany where they visited KLAUS FUCHS and also the subject's father. She stated the subject wanted to make another trip in 1964 but that ALBERT HOLZER had not agreed to this and they did not go.

Mrs. CARR said she had been concerned for some time regarding the subject based on her background as a sister of KLAUS FUCHS and because of these trips to Germany to visit him. She said she also questioned the motive of the subject in moving to Putney, Vermont, which community she said seems to attract people of "questionable sympathies". She added that the subject had become very irritating within the HOLZER family and seemed to "divide and conquer" various members of the family. She also pointed out that she, Mrs. CARR, would have been heir to ALBERT HOLZER's money except for his marriage to the subject. She furnished no specific information regarding any subversive activities on the part of the subject.

BS 100-19075

Records of the Middlesex Probate Court, Cambridge, Massachusetts, reviewed on October 5, 1964, reflect that ROBERT B. The records indicated that he had married KRISTEL FUCHS on November 2, 1938 and that she was now residing at Westboro, Massachusetts. Three children were born of this marriage, STEPHEN, born February 11, 1939, MARSHA, born February 10, 1941, and KRISTEL, born October 9, 1943. Boston informants, contacted in September, 1964, having knowledge of some phases of Communist Party activity in the Greater Boston area, advised they have no information on any activities of this subject.

Klaus Fuchs is the British Atom Scientist convicted on charges of espionage in behalf of the USSR.

Klaus Fuchs, an atomic physicist, is released from a British prison. His wife, Constance, who is Mrs. Albert Holzer, 44, Collins St., Hyde Park, says: "No, I don't think so. But he will have to learn to make something of his life from here on. It is difficult to understand the reasons behind his thinking in the past, but I shall leave that to him to explain."

On which side of the international fence he may go is a matter for conjecture.

Mrs. Holzer says: "All the news I get about my brother from newspapers."

Pleasant and courteous, she talked readily about visiting Klaus last Christmas, inviting him to live with her and her husband and two low-headed, happy-looking children, Mari-ona, 9, and Heidi, 14, in their modernistic Hyde Park home.

She ventured a guess that her brother will go to East Germany when released. This assumption is based on correspondence her father, Dr. Emil Fuchs of Leipzig, had on his 55th birthday with Klaus.

"My father has repeatedly written that he is expecting Klaus to live with him. He thinks my brother will leave and will not be a physicist at all. He could teach anything," she said, complimenting her brother's renowned brilliance.

She talked proudly of her father, a professor of theology at University of Leipzig, and showed the May issue of an East German monthly Protestant magazine, Faith and Conscience, which was dedicated entirely to him on his 55th birthday. He also has recently received a gold medal for services to his country from the German Communist government.

Asked if it were true that the church in East Germany is limited in its freedom, she replied: "Father reports otherwise, but if it is so, the church has often lived under persecution. Father has always been very progressive and very liberal so I know he'll find a way to live as a Christian over there."

As to her brother's future, she continued: "I know my father wrote after he last visited him in England in 1954, that Klaus said he wants to work for peace."

Mrs. Holzer clearly recalled an incident when her brother visited her in Cambridge (about 1945) which may throw some light on his circuitous pursuit of peace. At the time, Dr. Klaus Fuchs was working as a member of the British scientific team with the United States atomic experts on the top military secret of the nuclear age at Los Alamos, N.M.

"He showed us a picture of the first atomic bomb. I'll never forget it. I was horrified. And he told me then, 'I'll see that it won't be used.' This statement has always stuck in my mind," she declared.

MRS. ALBERT HOLZER of Hyde Park, with daughter, Heidi, has offered her home as sanctuary to her brother, Klaus Fuchs, atomic spy, soon to be released from a British prison.

Mrs. Holzer says she has written regularly to her father on his birthday, at Christmas and on special occasions during the nine years he has been in prison. But "I have never heard from him," she said. Her father writes regularly to Mrs. Holzer and to his son, the McCarran Act, Klaus is barred from entering the United States. It is also known that the physicist has withdrawn an application he made to enter America. His sister could not say.

"I should be unexpectedly sent to Hyde Park, how could he make a living? I know he could find a job in private industry," Mrs. Holzer said without any hesitation.

"He could be assumed another name? He would never assume another name. You can't travel under an alias in Germany or other part of Europe. It's against the law. So I don't think he would do that," she said, her husband strongly concurring.

born and raised in Hyde Park, Albert Holzer is an official in the U. Holzer, Inc. bookery, which has been in his family more than 100 years.

Does Klaus Fuchs and his father have much in common? They were quite different. Father is a very outgoing type of person. He gets along very well with everyone. Mother, though, was reserved and all such characteristics are rather typical of scientists. There were scientists on both sides of the family," she said. Mrs. Holzer received her degree in teaching at Halle University near Dresden at the beginning of Hitler's rise to power. But she, like her brother, Klaus, who is a year and a half her senior, opposed Nazism. They both fled Germany. He went to France and shortly afterwards to England; she to Switzerland.

"We date our lives from 1933," she remarked. "We did not want to live under Hitler. I stayed in Switzerland for a period and studied under Jung, then returned to Germany where I got my passport to America. I came over alone around 1936," she said. "And I have never been back." Originally she had planned to teach psychology in Germany.

"But everyone then had to take an oath to Hitler, and I would not do that. So I decided to study crafts, thinking that field would not be affected by Hitler's theories. But the government also required an oath for teachers of handicrafts so I left Germany and then enrolled at Swarthmore, where I majored in psychology and geography."

She had a sister, Elizabeth, who died in 1934 in Germany and a brother who died in 1952 in Berlin. He had lived in Switzerland during World War II.

Mother died when Klaus was in his teens, several years before Hitler took office," Mrs. Holzer said.

Dr. Gerlach, one of the German atom scientists who on April 12, 1957, signed the Goettingen Pledge, binding themselves never to help make an atom bomb. This was a revolutionary step which they hoped would be followed by the atom scientists of other countries.

It has not been followed, though Dr. Gerlach assured this writer that several of the world's leading atom scientists, including U.S. scientists, would like to do so. Germany having been neutralized for atom bomb production by the Goettingen Pledge, would offer a favorable climate to Klaus Fuchs, who is also an anti-A bomb crusader, having organized a protest against the bomb among his fellow prisoners in England.

Dr. Gerlach, free from any suspicion of communism, recently refused an honorary doctor's degree from Jean University in Communist Germany because the university had deprived other scientists who fled to West Germany of their degrees "for trivial and unfounded reasons."

He stated his belief that it is "absolutely out of the question" that Klaus be used again by Russia as a spy. Even before his arrest Klaus had a change of heart about communism. His confession led to the arrest of other Red spies. Klaus Fuchs' choice of freedom is a prestige defeat for the Reds. Russia has been angling to get him back. Recently the German Communist government gave his father, Dr. Emil Fuchs, Quaker and professor of theology at Leipzig, a gold medal for "services to his country."

The case of the German atom scientists who are on a "sit down strike" against the bomb is psychologically interesting. An "un-political" lot, they have been under the lash of militarism—first the Kaiser and then Hitler—more than the scientists of any other country.

Dr. Gerlach's pacifism began in 1943, when he quit work on submarine installations in Belgium, thus getting himself in wrong with the Nazis. At the beginning of the war Hitler asked his atom scientists whether they could make a bomb. The thought of making it they heard of the bomb at Hiroshima from a British officer, they did not believe it. Dr. Heisenberg said, "It is simply not true. The Americans, like the Nazis, are a wonder weapon and have called it a large conventional bomb as atom bomb for drop bombs."

When they were finally convinced they were wrong, The Goettingen Pledge originated in the emotional experience of this group.

A statement of Chancellor Adenauer that the A-bomb was not so bad and "only a further development" galvanized them to action and the declaration that they, at least, would have no share in this further development.

Their attitude has remained constant. The younger generation of German atom scientists who have not signed the pledge have the same anti-bomb feeling. Gerlach fears that some of them might be tricked into indirectly aiding bomb production through work in the atom-for-peace Euratom institute, a joint action of all European nations.

He said, "I personally do not trust Euratom. It is infiltrated with politics. One of its leaders, France's Dr. Gueron, also works in a French institute for atomic weapons."

2 Nations Beckon Fuchs Atom Spy Goes Free Soon; Jailed in 1950

By ERNEST ZAUGG

MUNICH, Ger. — Atom spy Klaus Fuchs, man without a country during nine years' imprisonment in England, the British having deprived him of his British citizenship, could now find a home in at least two countries of the free world.

The British have given him permission to remain in England after his release on June 20. In West Germany his fellow atom scientists hold him in high esteem and would welcome him back to the fold.

The United States is still off a bomb was for them, rather limits added to the McCarran Law which bans Fuchs on 31 counts. He applied for admission to the U.S. and then withdrew his application.

His sister Mrs. Albert Holzer of Hyde Park has invited him to her home. For the time being he cannot accept, but he is well taken care of elsewhere.

During an interview with Dr. Walter Gerlach, leading atom scientist of Germany and head of the Physics Institute in Munich, Dr. Gerlach stated, "I am positive, knowing Klaus that he was motivated by the highest and noblest motives and betrayed the bomb to Russia, not to help Russia, but to avoid some human catastrophe which he feared."

That he stated is the general view of atom scientists in Germany about Klaus Fuchs.

But it was on purely scientific grounds that they told Hitler it was "absolutely impossible" to make a bomb. Gerlach, head of atomic work in Germany during most of the war, was given funds and built an uranium reactor in 1944. Göring and Speer tried to take away his funds for "other people's work" and he told them it would be a disgrace for Germany to be behind other countries when peace came. He instantly they let him continue.

After Germany's defeat eight of the top German atom scientists—Doctors Gerlach, Heisenberg, Hahn, Hahn, Weissacker, Hark, Ruge and Korchling—were interned in England.
